If you want to score some instant fun on a rainy day, cut a plastic berry box in half. Invert one half and set it at one end of a table. Now your kids can line up at the opposite end and try to score by flicking button pucks into the net.

Tabletop Hockey